Activity 1: An Invitation

In the episode, Queenie hears from two friends, who are inviting her to their wedding. Isn't it fun to receive an invitation to a special occasion like a birthday or a wedding? Imagine that you are planning a special event or party, and then design the invitation in the space below. Remember to include important information, like where and when it's happening!

Activity 2: Your Plus 1

In the episode, Queenie's invitation states that she can bring along a "Plus 1" - so, somebody that she chooses to take with her. Imagine that you have been invited to a wedding and can take along a "Plus 1" - who would you take? List all of the possible people below, and then circle the person who you would choose to invite.

“Plus One”

Here's my invitation.
I hope you can come.
Block off your diary,
let's go have some fun.

We're only here once.
We have places to go,
and people to meet,
and lots more to know.

When in need of a hand,
why not grab mine?
Or cry on my shoulder
in challenging times.

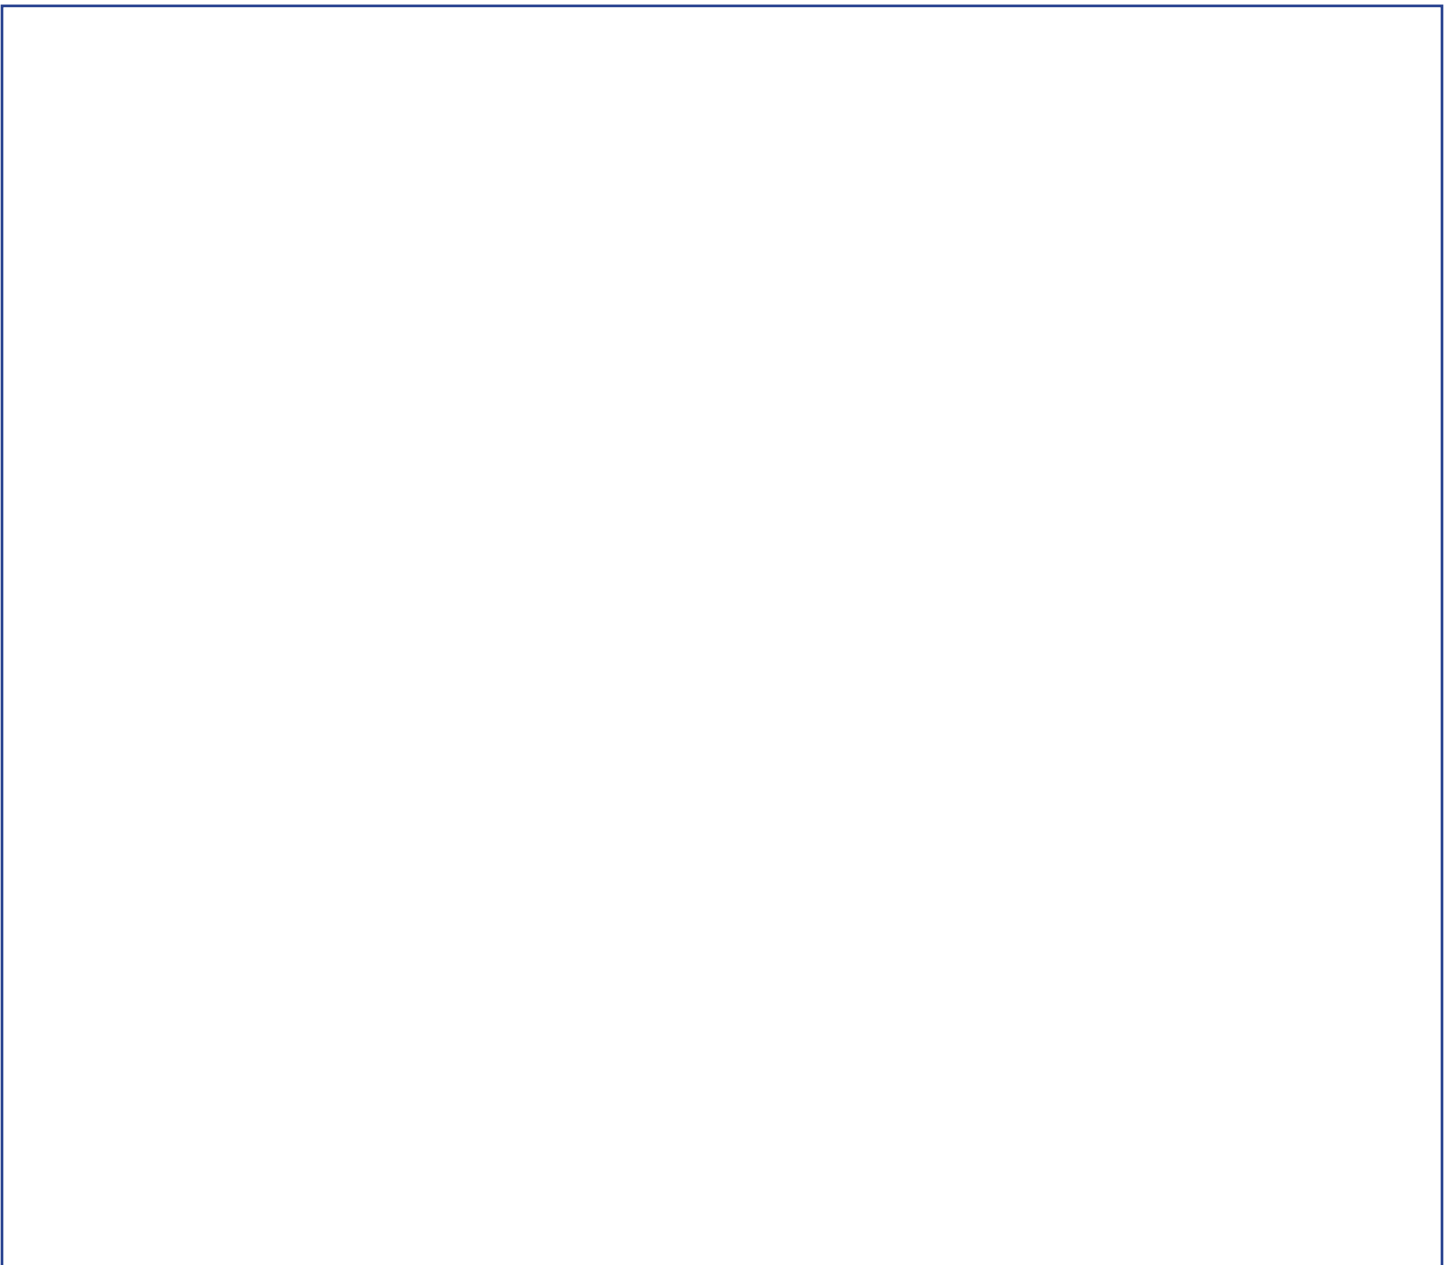

We all need someone,
and it's easy to see that I'm that for you,
and you're that for me.

So, here's my invitation.
I hope you can come.
On life's big adventure,
will you be my Plus One?

Activity 4: Wedding Cake

In the episode, Queenie makes a wedding cake after hearing some advice from Chef Katie Carrant. Of course, as with all of Queenie's adventures with cooking, it doesn't quite turn out as expected. Think about what wedding cake you would make for two of your friends, and then draw the cake in the space below. I'm sure it will turn out better than Queenie's melted ice-cream in old pie tins!
