Activity 1: Destinations

In this week's episode, we heard about walks, and also about places you can walk to. The Wordsearch below contains 15 hidden walk destinations. Can you find them all? If you need help, there's a list of the destinations at the bottom of page 7.

Activity 2: Your Walk

In the episode, we heard a poem about directions. Think about one of your favorite walks, and then draw a map below so that someone could do the same walk as you. On the map, show things that people could look at, or do, while they're doing your walk.

Activity 3: A Poem To Read

“Penguins”

Four penguin friends decided to go for a walk in the snow.
They made a packed lunch for their flippers to carry and lined up ready to go.

The friend at the front was named Slow Coach
so the first mile took such a long time that the one at the back gave up and went home leaving just three penguins in line.

Next to lead was a penguin named Speedy,
but his speed meant he'd slide and he'd slip,
and after he fell over for the tenth time,
Slow Coach called an end to his trip.

This left just two penguins out on a walk:
Speedy and one name of Munch,
and at Munch's insistence they halted the walk,
and both penguins sat down for their lunch!

Later that day the four penguin friends were huddled at home doing fine.
When one said, “Next time we all go out for a walk,
please let's not do it in line”.

Activity 4: Things to Check

In the poem, “Can We Go Now?”, we heard about someone waiting to go for a walk while somebody else checked that the house was locked, and more. Think about all of the things to check before you leave your home, and write a list of them below.

1st Thing to Check: _____

2nd Thing to Check: _____

3rd Thing to Check: _____

4th Thing to Check: _____

5th Thing to Check: _____

6th Thing to Check: _____
